THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL) : (a) to (c) The data reporting system in the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) does not generate information in the manner sought in part (a) of the Question. However, a statement showing bank-wise number of frauds in public sector banks and amount involved therein during the years 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 (upto September, 1999) is at Annexure I. [See Appendix 189, Annexure NO. 69]. Banks are implementing comprehensive guidelines issued by RBI regarding prevention of frauds which inter-alia include strengthening of internal control mechanisms, review of fraud cases on continual basis, undertaking concurrent audit covering branches accounting for 50 per cent of bank's business, scrutiny of cash deposits and withdrawals of Rs. 10 lakhs and above, improving housekeeping and imparting training to operational personnel. Whenever a fraud is detected by a bank, a preliminary investigation is made. Based on the findings, a decision is taken whether to conduct a thorough investigation departmentally or to handover the case to local police or the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI). On the basis of enquiry reports received after internal enquiry, or from police or CBI, banks take regular departmental action wherever necessary and award punishment to the officials who are found responsible for the fraud. The police and the CBI also file criminal cases for prosecution in Courts. Information regarding number of employees of public sector banks against whom prosecutions are pending in Courts for their involvement in corrupt practices for the years 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 is [See Appendix 189, Annexure 69].
